Thank you so much for joining the Wedgwood Circle - a *Collective of Investors, Patrons and Artists committed to helping create good, true and beautiful entertainment for the common good.

“We believe that creativity and imagination reflect the very nature of God, and that people of faith have a responsibility to create the world’s finest art and entertainment.”

The Wedgwood Circle cultivates unique events and experiences that foster community between investors, patrons and artists across five sectors: Film/TV, Music, Theatre, Literature and Gaming. We value the redemption of culture and connection with one another across our circles of influence.

We’re launching a 3-year Strategic Campaign to propel us toward our 20th anniversary in 2027. God is expanding our network to better serve our Members by investing in people, projects, and platforms to help our culture flourish. Consider us a concierge service, connecting you to trusted leaders and companies creating the most compelling stories and brands. We come alongside your interests to offer coaching, advice, and navigation in your chosen arena. The dramatic shifts in the entertainment business make this an opportune time to make a difference.

Your membership also enables Wedgwood to support artists creating powerful, redemptive content via:

- The Patron Fund: grants to emerging artists at a critical transition point -- when $1K to $5K can make a huge difference and propel their career forward.
- Artist Retreats: opportunities for spiritual renewal and fellowship to fuel creativity.
- Commissioned & Special Projects: larger grants to more established artists with an ambitious project designed to engage and inspire a broad audience.
- Fiscal Sponsorship: Wedgwood can extend tax-exempt status to artists when their project aligns with our mission. As fiscal sponsor, Wedgwood serves as a conduit for financial resources, providing support and oversight for independent films, plays, books, albums, etc.

In addition to the direct avenues listed above, Wedgwood also indirectly helps fund projects and companies by vetting artists and entrepreneurs who have investment opportunities in specific projects, platforms and companies that we introduce to our Members.
